Work experience as a freelance

Entrepreneur Oct 2017 - heden
Pontifix logistiek, Boxtel

The past 27 years I have (partially) set up the logistics of multiple companies and improved them in headlines and in details. I know to find the bottlenecks quickly and resolve them. I'm going to the workspace in order to figure out cause and effect. And more importantly; I know how to win the trust of your employees, because that is needed for a comprehensive understanding of an organization and to move forward. I developed my way of working during my postings and jobs. I have managed many great logistics jobs. I make complex logistics simpler and workable for everyone. I consider creative solutions, employ and secure them.

Interim assignments

Pontifix logistics delivers personnel strength. I am available for interim assignments in your day to day logistics organization.

What does Pontifex means?:

Pontifex is derived from the Latin word Pontifex.

Pontifex means Bridge Builder.

That reflects on how I am.

I am a targeted Bridge Builder and connector of people.

Like this I fix the job....

Skills:

Providing leadership yet in a social way, making plans flexible, creative, accurate, proactive, practical, insight in numbers, integrity, loyal and target orientated.

Sport:

Hockey, golf, ski.

Pronunciations:

Measuring = Knowing & Guessing = Missing!.....

If you do what you did, you will get what you got!.....

Trust will be the output of a relationship, not the input!.....

Languages:

Dutch;	Native
English;	Advanced
German;	Avarege
French;	Basic

Logistics consulting

Pontifex logistics looks for the best answer to your question. I go to the workspace to speak and listen carefully to the people. Together with you, I look at your logistics organization. Which processes are to your liking and where is improvement possible. I reflect and advise you on appropriate improvements for your logistic processes. I'll give you grip and advice so that you can make the right Decisions.

fmcg projects

Pontifex logistics will coördinatie your fmcg (fast moving consumer goods) projects. I collect the operational and strategic knowledge of you and your employees. Also I make an inventory of the ideas in your organization with regard to the project. I complete it as needed with my own insights and make it a logical and practical whole. This so the project develops to a widely supported and desired result.
